No food or drink please

In an effort to keep our studio clean, we ask that you do not bring any food or drink, other than water, into the building. As stated in the studio welcome letter, anyone seen with food, will have a fee of $10.00 added to their next monthly statement. There are a few dancers who have been given exceptions to this policy due to the number of hours they are at the studio at a given time.

Tuition, Fees, and Billing

Monthly tuition is due on the 1st of each month. If we have not received your payment by the 10th of the month, a $10 late fee will be added to your account. We encourage you to sign up for automatic credit or debit card payment. You can find the authorization form on our website or in the dance shop. Check payments can be placed in the secure tuition box just inside the studio door or mailed to the studio.

Attendance, Makeup Classes, and Cancellations

We ask that students not miss more than two classes during the year. If your dancer will be absent, please email the appropriate teacher directly by 2 pm, if possible, the day of the missed class. If you know in advance of upcoming conflicts, please notify the teacher as soon as possible.

Makeup classes are available as an option and are highly encouraged, but are not required. If your dancer will be making up a class with another teacher, please notify that teacher by email.

Class cancellation due to weather is based on CESOD staff determination. Please check our website for any information related to cancellations. Classes will be held as scheduled on school conference days.
